THE HOME, ITS PROBLEMS AND INTERESTS

ELABORATE NEGLIGEES THE ORDER OF THE DAY

Exquisite Laces and Dainty Ribbons Adorn Milady's Lounging Robes.

The soft, incept fashions so popular just now find fullest expression in the lovely negligees in which milady includes so freely. The smart shops show bewildering displays of these essentially feminine gaments. The matner is much affected, and is worn with a petitional made to match either in silk or muslin. The set shown in the sketch is of late and insertion. The selected are bell and edged with deep frills of the individual should be scallops, the ends crossing. A knot of black relate tibbon is fastened at the needs and a hand of the same caused about a devel and should be scallops, the ends crossing. A knot of black relate tibbon is fastened at the needs and a hand of the same caused about the waste and the first with long ends.

Paris, which, in addition that its is beauty, has the great advantage of weaking and wearing well.

Paris, which, in addition that its beauty, has the great advantage of weaking and wearing well.

A coiscade of lace finishes the front of the gown and a full flounce forms the bottom of the skirt.

PRIODICAL PUBLISHERS

In her place upon and in short to speak about, something more I want to speak about, something more I want to speak about. Something more I want to speak about, something more I want to speak about. Something more I want t

Sent to Postoffices in the United States by May 1.

Five Denominations.

There will be five denominations of the Louisiana Purchase stamps—L.cent, 2 cent, 3 cent, 5 cent, and 10 cent. There will be 90,000,000 of the 1 cent denomination; 225,600,000 of the 2 cent, 7,500,000 of the 3 cent, 9,500,000 of the 5 cent, and 4560,000 of the 40 cent denomination to last from May to July. }

Likeness of Livingston.

Pr. 1 cent stamp will bear the likeness of Robert R. Livingston, who, as minis-ter to Franci negotiated with Napoleon and his ministers for the Louisiana Pur

The 2 cent stamp bears the likeness of

AMERICAN WAR VESSELS FOR ST. LOUIS FAIR

tected cruiser Atlanta, the gunboat Bancroft, and two torpedo boat destroyers as soon as the Atlanta completes its Is soon as the Americ completes its target practice at Pensacola. A reception has been arranged at Galvestoa for the officers and crews of the warships.

Exrly in April the ganboat Nashville and two torpedo boat destroyers will start up the Mississippi River. They will remain at St. Louis as long as the will remain at St. Louis as long as the stage of water-will permit.

JESUP CALLS ON HAY.

Morris K. Jesup, of New York, called on Secretary Hay at the State Department yesterday and had a long conferment yesterday.

Five Denominations Will Be Issued and Born February 29, Visit to Russia Deprived Her of One. Mr. Roosevelt to Speak and Ex-Presi-Dodged Another While Crossing Seas.

THUG USED GIRL'S

PICTURE AS DECOY

and his money gone. He came to see "Marion Maynard," of South Prospect Alfred C. Cosdon, 24, and Nellie R.

HONOLULU, T. H., March 22.-To | hind the rest of the world, and before The issue of postage stamps commem-critive of the Louisiana Purchase will be sent out to the postoffices all over gle, sixteen years old, of Red Bank, N. the country, so she missed that birth-

She was born February 29, 1888. There | She was on her way to China in 1896 was not another birthday for her until and dodged a birthday while crossing in 1832, but at that time she was visiting in St. Petersburg with her parents. The Russian calendar is twelve days be-

RED CROSS TREASURY RATHER SHORT IN FUNDS This May Prohibit a Full Investigation Prospective Bridegroom Lost $800 and

Into Its Affairs.

Lack of funds may hinder the investigation of the American National Red Cross which is to be conducted by the committee of inquiry composed of Scnarous and a norther in the committee of section of the American National Red Large to Connecticut by a letter expressing deep love. Abel E. Kerr, fifty years of age, of St. Louis, an inventor tor Proctor, Representative William and a partner in a big cigar store, is Alden Smith, and Gen. F. C. Ainsworth, stranded in Prospect. His head is sore chief of the Record and Pension Office It was the purpose of the committee to have all the testimony submitted in writing, thus minimizing the expense,

DR. ADLER RE-ELECTED SOCIETY PRESIDENT

yesterday re-elected president of the Jewish Historical Society in New Others elected were: Vice presidents, Others elected were: Vice presidents, Simon W. Rosendale, Albany; the Rev Dr. B. Filsenthal, Chicago; Prof. Charles Gross, of Harvard University, and Prof. Richard Gotthell, of Columbia; corresponding secretary, Max J. Kohier, New York; recording secretary, Di. Herbert Friedenwald, Philadelphia; treasurer, M. Taylor Phillips, New York; curator, Leon Heuhner, New York.

dent Cleveland to Be a Guest of the Association.

men, jurists, diplomats, authors, editors, publishers and magazine and newspaper artists to the number of three or four hundred will attend.

The acceptance already in hand insure a notable gathering. President Roosevelt will be present and deliver an address, and ex-President Cleveland will probably accept an invitation.

The list of guests includes the Russian ambassador, the German ambassador, the German ambassador, the Japanese minister, Secretary Hay, Secretary Taft, Supreme Court justices, United States Senators, Cardinal Gibbons, Bishop Potter, Andrew Carnegle, Joseph Jefferson, William Jennings Bryan, Thomas A. Edison, Governor Odell, ex-Gov. Frank S Black, F. Hopkinson Smith, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, William Dean Howelis and many others whose names are well known in the literary world.

Hamilton W. Mabie is to be toastmaster.

FORESTRY BUREAU MAN

in answer to a letter, in which she ip-closed her picture and consented to be his wife.

Barry, 17.
Edward Haney, 29, and Lizzie U.
Dempsey, 18, both Spottsylvania, Va.
Robert McKenny, 21, and Marie L.
Claggett, 20.

Claggett, 20.

Characteristic Clare of Control of Children, The Kind You Have Aiways Bought

THE EVENING STORY

SISTER ERMELINDA'S LOVE.

By LUCIA CHASE BELL.

This was Saturday, and the day | come around the walk and see my hair cholars were all at home, of course, Lizabeth had somehow contrived to be left behind when the other boarders were taken out for a perfunctory want to see your hair all down, just for a minute." wide old doorway of the sisters' school, taking deep, luxurious breaths of the reense that rose from sumptuous beds fingers were poking under that grim of roses and carnations bordering the band, loosening a cloud of wavy gold, pleasant walks, while she steeped her little by little, until the sister exclaimed small self in the comfort of the warm with affectionate petulance, half frightclways being begun again just where it looking down at Elizabeth with a glow-tale. I am very sorry and been broken off. Practically, each ing smile. new teacher found some excuse to be-gin at the beginning, finding this method asier. Her mother was a vaudeville singer, just now on the top wave of popularity, and could afford to put Elizabeth into a safe refuge with the

Her father, the child had confidentially informed Sister Ermelinda, was "no good." He was an actor, and once he was "lovely;" but now he drank.

As for the present, the child had the daintiest wardrobe in the school, and everything else that a child could need, except her mother, whom she wor-shiped. Today her joy was complete when Sister Ermelinda came out to give the wide steps their Saturday scrubbing. A little tendril of moist gold slipped out upon her brow from be-neath the close band of white under the shipped out upon her brow from beneath the close band of white under the black hood, as down upon her knees, she bent over her brush. Elizabeth suddenly stooped from her perch, put out one daring finger, crooked it into the tendril, and pulled until a soft curl stretched gleaning down to Sister Ermelinda's silken eyebrow.

"That is very naughty," said the sistent is very naughty," said little tendril ty to jut it back."

"I beg your pardon, sister," said little Elizabeth, "but I'm so glad you can't put it back."

"I beg your pardon, sister," said little put it back For I want to learn something about gold. That is why I pulled it down. I want you to tell me if the little beads of gold on the butterfly cocoon in the schoolroom are truly gold, and if the little curl of your hair is truly gold, and if the little curl of your hair is truly gold. If it is not, look exactly like gold?

"You must not look at me like that,"

"Oh, What a Contract You'd Get, Fifty Dollars a Week and Expenses—You below."

"Oh, what a contract You'd Get, Fifty Dollars a Week and Expenses—You below."

"Oh, what a contract You'd Get, Fifty Dollars a Week and Expenses—You below."

"Oh, sister, if you could only do an act and look like that!" whispered Flizabeth in rapture. "Oh, what a contract you'd get. Fifty dollars a week and Expenses—You below and to white the in rapture. "Oh, what a contract you'd get. Fifty dollars a week and Expenses—You below."

Her mother was in the carriage, radiantly beautiful and happy. A hand-some young man sat beside her. He laughed a great deal and kissed filizabeth's for a Dresden doll, in spite of her rapture over being nestled close to the dignity of a Dresden doll, in spite of her rapture over being nestled close to the dignity of a Dresden doll, in hers.

Elizabeth's visit lasted two weeks. Elizabeth threw her arms around her, kissing neck, brow, and mouth.

"You must not look at me like that,"

"A sudd wing is truly gold, and if the little curiof your hair is truly gold. If it is not, how can it look exactly like gold?
Couldn't God make real gold grow on the cocoon and on the butterfly's wing, and couldn't He make your hair truly gold? Perhaps these things are all gold, and nobody has ever found it out. What is gold, Sister Ermelinda?"

her arms around her, kissing neck, brow, and mouth.

"You must not look at me like that,"
she pleaded, "because you know I love you so. And you know very well that my stockings have not a hole. My mamma is a lady and she taught me
how to darn long ago. I shall not budge a step"—sitting down deliberately in her place upon the sill—"for there is tory, all asleep, except Elizabeth. The sister came softly through the dormitory, and a long stream of moonlight wishone through the window at the end of the aisle so that Elizabeth could see her plainly.

She stopped to look at Elizabeth presed two eager little arms and drew Sistory, all asleep, except Elizabeth. The sister came softly through the dormitory, and a long stream of moonlight wishone through the window at the end of the aisle so that Elizabeth could see her plant or you know very well that my stockings have not a hole. My mamma is a lady and she taught me
how to darn long ago. I shall not budge a step"—sitting down deliberately
in her place upon the sill—"for there is

The Periodical Publishers' Association of America will give a dinner at the new Willard Hotel April 7, at which statesmen, jurists, diplomats, authors, editors.

"It is not," said Elizabeth calmly.

"And it is of no use, sister, for you never can.

Bears the Signature Chat H. Flitchers.

ter commanded her to get into her nightgown without a dry rub. She had never dreamed that life could be so cunburst. A carriage stopped at the school and a note from her mother was crought in, saying that Elizabeth was loose? You know it is not permitted."

"She won't come," said Elizabeth.
"Oh, sister, you're so lovely! I do so with some friends who would be going vacation time.

She put her soft face close to the sis-ter's, and all the while her wheedling Elizabeth was put in order for the visit, but Sister Ermelinda did not seem to know of her going. Elizabeth waited as long as she dared in the re south sun.

Elizabeth was eight years old, and had only lately come to the sisters to have her education begun again just where it had been broken off. Theoretically, Elizabeth's education was citable, being being being being being again just where it had been broken off. Theoretically, Elizabeth's education was citable, being dealers. The south sun and should be a good look at it now—just one minute—and don't you ever tell!"

Off came the hood and band, out flew her hair in a merry, glittering shower, and she stood up, her hands behind her, leaving one I would promise to fe good," she thought sorrowfully. "I would see her just once I would promise to fe good," she thought sorrowfully. "I would beg her to forgive her hair in a merry, glittering shower, and she stood up, her hands behind her, leaving the control of the sisters to the sisters to

But, sorry or not, Elizabeth had to

TO GIVE A BANQUET Sister Ermelinda's dimples deepened.

For one swift instant a spirit of laughter came to her eyes and looked "There's nobody to love me but you,"

over her brush:

"That is slang: and you are a wicked child to speak so of those who try to instruct you. You said the same thing about the world to the sister superior

"Oh, I do, I do—you are all I have the other day when she examined you, God help me!" the sister answered in and she reprimanded me for letting a sobbing whisper.

you think such things. You know that And she reld her little love close.

and you will not tell Sister Ursula A sense of injustice was stinging her.

APPOINTED A LECTURER ited her and brought her a present of delicious home-made bonbons, which she shared with Elizabeth? And did she The Yale University Corporation has appointed overton W. Price, now assistant chief in the Eureau of Forestry the address given in Marion's letter was a vacant lot of twenty-two acres, mowily buckwheat stubble. Kerr started toward a farm house, he says, and in broad daylight, when he was accosted sugh-looking man of forty, who asked sugh-looking man of the training. This work will begin all the work of the junior year in order to give forestry students more thorough field training. This work will begin fully I at all the communicates with his friends in St. Louis. His trip cost him friends in St. Louis, His trip cost him friends in St. Louis His trip cost him friends in the friends in St. Louis His trip cost him friends in St. Loui The Yale University Corporation has appointed Overton W. Price, now assistant chief in the Bureau of Forestry here, as lecturer in field methods.

A summer term will be added to the work of the junior year in order to give forestry students more thorough field training. This work will begin July 1 at Milford, Pa. where James Pinchot will erect a building for use of students.

Ports, 22.
Ridgely Durell Wright, 22, and Flornece B. Rote, 19.
Percy H. Moore, 29, and Ethel C. Lee, 21.
Alfred C. Condon, 24, and Florner B. Alfred C. Condon, 24, and Florner B. Alfred C. Condon, 24, and Florner B. Rote, 19.
Toulght Elizabeth always dreaded Sister Mary Felicia, because she had no soft smiles like Sister Ermelinda's, and washington, and James V. A. Shields, prever cared how wet the towels were. Toulght Elizabeth's teeth chattered with

But she said severely, bending low sorry I was bad, sister. I will neve pull down your hair again, Choice Potatoes, $1.15 Bu., 35c Pk. of that rrunes, se per 16; 4 198. Evaped Peaches for 25c; 5 pkges. Macaron 5c; 3 qts. Navy Beans for 25c; 4 cans atoes for 25c; 3 cans Sifted Peas For 5 lbs. Codfish for 25c; 1 dozen Laun Soap for 25c; 14 barrel sael or of the East" Flour for $1.50; Cehe

J. T. D. PYLES. 948 Louisiana Avenue

Sewing Machine Bargains. Wheeler & Wilso

Al! warranted 5 years. Machines sold on 50c weekly pay-OPPENHEIMER'S, 514 Ninth St. N. W. Knife and Accordion Plaiting, from 2e per yard. Pinking, 1e yard. Done while you wait.

Washington Brewing It's the finest of years.
Send in your order as BOCK BEEP once so as to insure being supplied. 4th and F

Peter Grogan Your Credit Is as Good as Gold

If You Are to Be Married This Spring, Let Us Furnish Your House On

The fitting out of beautiful, ozy homes for newly married uples has been one of the most attractive features of our business for the past thirty years. We stand ready to furnish your onse from top to bottom, on the siest terms of credit, and at the me time give you the benefit of wer prices than guaranteed miture can be bought for in e cash stores. If you are going o be married soon, and go to ousekeeping, you will find great conomy in buying furniture ow while prices are at low ebb. Mattings fitted and tacked down

Peter Grogan,

"Wonder What Mertz Will Say Today?

Suit to Order, $11.50

-Tailored in the latest style of the newest spring suitings, that would ordinarily sell at $15. An Easter offering worth while Mertz and Mertz Co., 906 F Street.

Steinway and other Pianos for Sale ent and Exchange

Home of Pure Whiskey. Chas. Kraemer's

DROOP'S Music Stora

923-925 Pa. Ave.. N W.

Caravan

It's 15 years old, absolutely pure, of delightful taste, exculsite bouquet. As a promoter of good health it is peerless. Keep a surely in the house. Ouart. $1.25 Chas. Kraemer, 785 7th st. Phone M. 835.

Just Say "Charge It."

$3.78

Chiffonier Buying a $6.50 Chif-fonier for $3.78 is a value that's appre-ciated. Results show

E: BURKS, 723 7th St. N.W. Phone E. 283.

Farniture, Floor Coverings.

DR. PATTON,

Union Dental Parlors, 910 F St. N. W.

Agar Corner Ninth.